I Am...You Are...Bread of Life

Scripture: John 6: 22-40 Pastor Alan Smith

“I AM the bread of life...”

Bread is general term for food, sustenance as well as the communal action between people, an expression of solidarity, or truce, or at the least an alliance together.

Unleavened bread – bread made without yeast, without rising.

When Jesus says he is the Bread of Life – there is an affirmation that:

1. God is the supplier of this life through Him.
2. Jesus, like “bread” is necessary for life, essential for healthy existence.
3. There is a sustaining sense of bread. Lord’s Prayer – “Give us THIS DAY our DAILY BREAD...”

Jesus’ challenge to “come” and “believe.”

We “come” to the source – to God, we “believe” in an ongoing, daily, sustaining way.

As United Methodists: we celebrate communion as the real presence of God in our Lord’s Supper...

In the temple and tabernacle: the “bread of presence, also called the showbread
