START WITH THE HEART

KATHY KOCH, PhD
FOREWORD BY KIRK CAMERON

I am reading the above book on motivating your kids. I know we all can use help in raising compassionate, responsible and brave kids. For several weeks I will be sharing some ideas on : SECURING YOUR CHILDRENS HEARTS. I hope you will be inspired to try these ideas. I have the book if anyone would like to borrow it .

4. TELL YOUR CHILDREN YOU ARE CONFIDENT IN GOD. Teach then scripture, pray for and with them, go to church together, and serve with them.
5. PRORITIZE CHILDREN, not their behavior.
6. YOU CAN DISLIKE WHAT CHILDREN DO while you still like and love them. Remember we can all have bad days.
7. BE WHO YOU WANT YOUR CHILDREN TO BE. And teach them who you want them to be. Much is caught and taught. Want them to be successful.

DAILY CHALLENGE FROM THE PARENTING CLASS

- ◆ Pray a personalized version of Joshua 1:9 over each of your kids
- ◆ How will we structure this in our daily lives
- ◆ Be specific to remind your kids that God is always with them

COGS KIDS SERVICE PROJECT

We are all extremely busy this time of the year. We have a better way to model the spirit of giving and helping other this time of the year, by volunteering as a family for the Living Gift Market service project. Check out the link below, with several ways to serve and have a great time with our church family.
