

Today in Sunday School

Middle School

Youth Room, 9:45 - 10:45 AM

Faith may seem like a difficult concept for middle school students to grasp. The key is to focus on one or two different, simple aspects of faith. In this study, highlight how Rahab's faith was a choice she made, not just a feeling. Also, faith is not for the faint of heart—it sometimes involves a risk of some sort. However, we know that faith pleases God and that he allows faithful people to carry out his plans.

High School

Room 23, 9:45 - 10:45 AM

Today's teenagers have big dreams. They see people suddenly rise to fame through viral YouTube videos. Big dreams seem more realistic than ever before. Use this study to appeal to that desire to do something big, but help students direct that desire to doing big things for God through a committed faith in him.
