

Today in Sunday School

Middle School

Youth Room, 9:45 - 10:45 AM

Middle school students often feel on top of the world. But, at least as often, they can feel inadequate and depressed. This study will help students remember times God brought them through difficult circumstances, as well as times God gave them bountiful blessings. As a result, they'll see how remembering what God has done can help them maintain their faith no matter what life brings.

High School

Room 23, 9:45 - 10:45 AM

Thankfulness doesn't come easily to many students in our society. High-schoolers need to be regularly reminded and challenged to be thankful for the good things God has provided. Throughout this study, challenge your students to remember what God has done—both in history and in their own lives—and to discover for themselves the special joy that comes from developing a thankful heart.
