Jesus didn't see the shepherds as unworthy of a place at his birth. He came for just that kind of people—people who sometimes did things they shouldn't do. Who needed him. People who were sometimes forgotten. Ignored. Treated like nobodies. He came for them—for us— because his love makes us more than nobodies, His love makes us his friends.

Friends, he did come for all of us. Lets remember this as we celebrate this wonderful time of the year.

I would like to wish each and everyone of you a joyous holiday season.
Love to all, June
