

Today in Sunday School

Middle School

Youth Room, 9:45 - 10:45 AM

Middle schoolers may feel as if the relationship they have with their parents is strained. They may not like to think of God as a father figure, especially if they've never felt close to their own fathers. Use this study to help students deal with any disappointment or frustration they may feel in their own family relationships by finding a sense of family and belonging with God.

High School

Room 23, 9:45 - 10:45 AM

They do it with their grades, their parents, their teachers, and definitely their friends. Senior highers are always trying to prove themselves and measure up. For many of your students, especially those just exploring Christianity or questioning their faith for the first time, being a Christian can seem like one more thing to add to the list of unattainable goals. As you use this study to teach students about being a child of God, help your students focus on the fact that God loves them as they are and welcomes them as his children.
