A Jesus-Shaped Life: The Justice of Jesus

“Through the Eyes of Jesus”

Isaiah 42:1, 5-7; Matthew 12:18, 20-21

Jesus shows us what it means to bring justice to the world. Jesus brings us justice by offering salvation. For all those who call on the name of Jesus, we find salvation – the ultimate justice – the ultimate healing – the ultimate restoration to God.

When we have the eyes of Jesus we see the injustice in the world. We see those who are in need. We see what needs to be done. And we see all this through the eyes of love.

When pray the Lord's prayer we are praying for God's kingdom to be manifest – to come into being on earth. Justice happens here on earth whenever we do the kingdom work of Jesus.

Jesus showed his love for people by meeting their physical needs, by restoring them to the community – social needs – and by restoring their soul through proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God, come to earth through him. Jesus sends us out to do the same.

When we see people through the eyes of Jesus we want them to be whole – physically, emotionally, spiritually – in every way a person can be whole. When we have the Jesus-shaped life we will want justice for every part of a person and for every person.

To have the Jesus shaped life is to live out the kingdom life on earth – to bring justice to those in need and to bring them to the ultimate justice of a life in relationship with God.
