AN INVITATION TO PRAY

+Prayer of Confession - based on Psalm 139 (unison)

O Lord, you have searched me and know me. You know when I sit and when I rise; you perceive my thoughts from afar. You discern my going out and my lying down; you are familiar with all my ways. Before a word is on my tongue you know it completely, O Lord. You hem me in- behind and before; you have laid your hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty to attain. For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Search me, O God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts. See if there is any offensive way in me, and forgive my sins. Lead me by your righteous hand in the way everlasting. AMEN.

Sermon Outline: Living the Resurrection
Matthew 5:1-12

Panel Discussion Questions:

- #1 What initially brought you to Celebrate Recovery? What did you later discover to be the real underlying issues?
- #2 What patterns did the inventory process reveal to you and how did sharing and admitting this to God, yourself, and another person pave the way to freedom, growth and healing?
- #3 Share a time when you made amends to someone you had harmed, or offered forgiveness to someone who had harmed you, and the outcome?
- #4 Now that you have had a spiritual experience as a result of working through the Christ-centered steps and principles, how are you carrying this message to others? How are you “living the resurrection?”
