Summer Sermon Series: Apostles’ Creed
“The Heart of Our Faith”

I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord

John 1:1-5, 14; Colossians 1:15-23a

The Son was there in the beginning creating along with The Father: “Through him all things were made, without him nothing was made that has been made.”

The Son is the “reflection of God’s glory and the exact imprint of God’s very being.” This is why we say that the Son is of the same substance with the eternal Father.

This phrase spells out the heart of our faith - Jesus is the central figure in the Christian faith. There are twelve declarations in the Apostles’ Creed, six of which are about Jesus Christ, because it is essential that we have a clear understanding of who Jesus is. Jesus is the focus of all New Testament revelation.

“Christ” is a title; it means “anointed one of God, chosen one of God.” In the Hebrew it is “Messiah.”

Everything in the Old Testament points to and is fulfilled by God’s only Son, Jesus the Christ, the second person of the Trinity.

“Lord” identifies Jesus as divine; Jesus is God. The earliest confession of our faith is found in Romans 10:9, “if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.”

Continued to next column...

God is a relational God who longs to be in relationship with us.

In Jesus two natures come together – humanity and deity in one.

Jesus chose to suffer for you and for me, all in order to reconcile us to the Father. All because God is a relationship God – and God longs to be in a relationship with each one of us.
