Symbols of the Christian Faith

ΙΧΘΥΣ

I C H T H U S

“Ichthus” is the Greek word for fish. It also serves as an acronym for: “Jesus Christ, God’s Son, Savior.” Early Christians, fearful of persecution, identified themselves to one another with this secret symbol from the late second century.

“I Believe: Love in Action”

July 3, 2022 Summer Sermon Series: Creed

Who was Conceived by the Holy Spirit, Born of the Virgin Mary

“Love Is a Verb”

Philippians 2:5-11; Luke 1:1-4, 26b-27, 35, 38

The word "incarnation" is Latin for: in the flesh.
This is the word we use to describe Jesus: God taking on human flesh.

What Jesus did is love in action, because love is a verb.

God took on flesh and became Jesus. He is fully God and fully human. This is one of the mysteries of our faith – and it is also a key doctrine of our faith.

I believe in Jesus ... who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary. The only way that he could be conceive then, was of the Holy Spirit.

This gets to the central core of our faith. Had Jesus been born of Joseph, he would not have been able to save us from our sin.

It was necessary for Jesus to be the spotless
"Lamb of God" without sin in order to be the perfect sacrifice for our sin. This means that not only did he need to live a life without sin – a perfect life – but he also had to be born without sin.
Jesus is conceived by the Holy Spirit, and therefore he does not have Adam's sin.

Jesus lived a fully human life, and he lived it in love and obedience to the Father. And then Jesus set us free from the bonds of sin and death by dying for us on the cross.

Jesus asks us to do more than feel love for him,
he asks us to do things, because love is a verb.
