Symbols of the Christian Faith

Agnus Dei

The Lamb of God, carrying the Banner of Victory.
The banner itself is sometimes called the Easter or Resurrection Banner, symbolizing Christ's victory over death. The three rayed halo signifies divinity.

Sending Forth

"No One is Beyond Reach"
Matthew 28:1-10; 1
Peter 3:18-20a; 4:6 CEB

"He descended to the dead" can be a controversial statement in the Apostle's Creed. Yet there is so much to unpack in this statement. Jesus not only took the punishment of our sin- which is death- he also willingly descended to the darkest place, "the lower regions", to reach us and to save us.

"The third day He rose again from the dead." The next statement affirms Jesus' victory over sin and death as the resurrected Lord. (Colossians 2:15) The resurrection is a distinctive of Christianity and is central to our faith. (1 Corinthians 15)

Through Jesus's death on the cross, we are forgiven and made righteous before God. Because of the power of the resurrection, we have confidence that no one is beyond the reach of God's incredible love. We have been given this promise and this hope, and now as followers of Christ, we are called to share this Good News with the world.
