Sending Forth

"I Belong"

1 Peter 2: 9;
Acts 2: 42-47;
Matthew 28:19-20;
1 Peter 4:7-11

Belonging is a deeply felt human need, and people try to meet this need in different ways. The Church has a message of hope for isolated individuals seeking a spiritual connection with God and others. The Church is meant to be a different kind of community. (1 Peter 2:9)

We find a beautiful description of Christian community in Acts 2:42-47, where we see these characteristics:

- An outward focus
- Built on a foundation of the teachings of the apostles
- A shared sense of mission (Matthew 28:19-20)
- Engaged in the practices of the faith, including fellowship, the breaking of bread, prayer, worship, sharing stories of God's miracles, and stewardship

The one ingredient that binds these all together is LOVE, as expressed in HOSPITALITY (1 Peter 4:8-11). Hospitality is a concrete expression of God's love, and we are called to be intentional in our hospitality towards one another and to the world. Let us be a church that invites and welcomes ALL into genuine community!
