Sending Forth

"Who Do You Say That I Am?"

Luke 23:33-43; Colossians 1:11-20

If Jesus were to ask the soldiers at the foot of the cross who He was, what would their response be? I think they would say, "just another day, just another criminal."

The first criminal cried out to Jesus, "So you're the Messiah? Prove it by saving yourself - and us too, while you're at it!" He didn't want to change himself, but he did want Jesus to change the world to suit his needs.

The other man on the cross said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." These are words of recognition: that Jesus has a kingdom on the other side of death, he is able to conquer death, he has the power over sin and death. In his last moments of life, this man recognized that Jesus is the Son of God, and because of that, he confessed before Jesus that he was a sinner. Eternal life begins the moment that a person confesses their sin and their dependence on Jesus. Eternal life begins the moment a person declares that Jesus is King of their life.

Jesus asks everyone the same question, "Who do you say that I am?" How do we answer the question - what does our life story tell others about what we believe?

Do we believe that God is the great I Am? Do we believe that Jesus is King and Lord over all? Do we believe that God is capable of caring for us and providing for us? Do we trust our King with our lives?

Let us fill our hearts with gratitude for all that King Jesus has given to us! Putting Jesus first reminds us to be thankful and we learn to trust God for everything. Trusting our King sets our fear aside and we are able to live our lives freely and with a thankful heart.

Who do you say that Jesus is? Have you made him King of your life?
