ALL SAINTS SUNDAY "The Rest of the Story" Ephesians 1:11-23

God has written a story and it's a marvelous, beautiful story. It's a love story, the greatest ever told, about the love of God for his creation. But sin came and divided us from God, the lovers were torn apart.

In the climax of all human history, our Prince came to rescue us. His love for us drove him to the cross, where he died in our place. Love raised our Prince from the grave so that He might begin to change the way the rest of the story would play out.

The chapters that follow in this grand story are filled with stories of saints who have lived their lives following Christ – that is precisely what a saint is: one who follows Christ. Some of these we have heard of, Paul, Lydia, Augustine, Martin Luther, John Wesley, Mother Teresa, etc.

Today we gather to celebrate the rest of the story. We celebrate the saints in our own church family, who have left their mark on our lives and our history. Their lives are just part of the full story. And someday we will be with them and we will share the rest of the story together.

Every story we tell is our attempt to put into words and images what God has written there, on our hearts. The reason we long for the happy ending is because, as it is written in Ecclesiastes 3:11, "God has set eternity" in our hearts, and this is what we're trying to express when we tell our stories.

The happy endings we read in books are all borrowed from Scripture, which tells the rest of the story. Scripture tells us of immortal life. Scripture promises that all things will be restored, everything will be made new. In hope beyond hope, Paradise will be regained.
