Peace With Justice Sunday
Are Your Hands In?
Luke 4:14-30; Matthew 22:34-40
Reverend David Harris

- Peace and Justice are themes in the Bible and in Jesus' ministry. The scriptures tell us to love God, love our neighbor as ourselves, and model our lives after Jesus in our pursuit of peace and justice in the world.
- We may feel overwhelmed, and like one person can't make a difference. But today we are reminded that Jesus invites us to join hands with one another and with Jesus in His kingdom work. Together we can accomplish what we could not do as individuals, offering hope in a broken and hurting world.
- Recognize that promoting Peace and Justice is the responsibility of everyone. Approach these issues with the eyes and heart of Christ. Respond today by joining your hands with Jesus and with one another to pursue peace and justice. Are your hands in?
