Jesus came, not just to forgive us our sin but to transform us; to restore that image in us that was broken in the fall. To give us full life – abundant life. To live a life of holiness and walk side by side with God.

Wesley believed holiness is the aim of every Christian's life. "To be holy is to believe in, trust, love, worship, imitate, and obey God. It means delighting in God, rejoicing in God's will, seeking and finding our happiness in God, and desiring fuller enjoyment of God."

When Wesley spoke of holiness, this is a perfection of love, "God remains in us and his love is made perfect in us." We are in love with God. It is the pure love that comes from God and is God's nature. This is holiness, which is the goal of salvation.

"A Methodist is one who has the 'love of God shed abroad in his heart by the Holy Ghost given unto him' and one who 'loves the Lord his God with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his mind, and with all his strength'."

To be "happy in God," was an expression used among Wesley and the early Methodists as a description of the sanctified life. We can only find true Happiness from a relationship with the Triune God.

Holiness is to trust in God. Holiness is to live in relationship with God.

As Methodists we believe that we are called to a life of constant renewal of the heart. Our goal is to have the image of Christ within us, for us to be transformed into the image of Christ. We choose to live in our Father's house where we become holy, as our Father is holy.

Scriptures: 1 John 4:12; Philippians 3:12;
Romans 8:16 and 12:2; Ephesians 3:16-19
